

● Moon 1 ~ Moon of Purpose

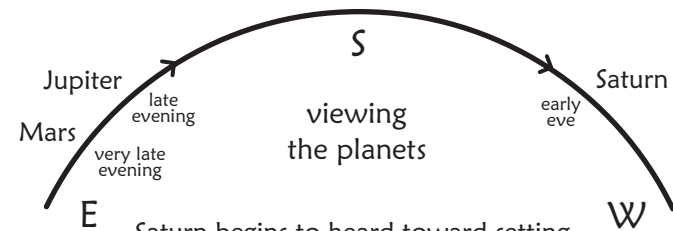

Moon Wizards Dance and Sing, Meeting the World Purposefully, with Wind, subtly penetrating and pervading, speaking magical words into aliveness, carried aloft upon Eagle's winged vision

From Serpent Moon Selfhood, Moon Wizard Originates, Meeting the Whole of the World Beyond the Self magically and effortlessly, dancingly shapeshifting moment by moment by moment, Moon cycling through dark mirroring portals, along the wheeling way visiting the mansions of different starry lovers, night after night.

There's some tension in the air, with Uranus and Pluto very nearly squaring off, so notice what's flaring now that will in late spring touch off two years of revolutionary transformation. But for now, wing-footed Hermes kneels before the goddess, in a pleasurefully harmonious earth trine with Jupiter and Pluto, receiving a message. As the kneeler backs away, Wind whispers news of comet Elenin crossing earth's orbit on its way toward the sun. That dreaming night, Neptune pulls back from its homecoming at the vast water's edge.

This year's Moon Wizard Purposing is Inspired by Wind, magic words and songs, dancing with the unseen, whistling through the hollow tree flutes of our bodies, subtly penetrating and pervading. Up from last year's Serpent roots, the Tree becomes our ladder for journeying the levels, this year too as Eagles, wind-bourne from the crowning branches, to fly in the sky, independently free to see and soar.
