

Moon 13 ~ Moon of Freedom

Hand reaches for the Sun and Skywalker Freedom as Moon Wizards Meet the World on their way to a Skywalking Storm Attunement

The revolutionary and transformational Uranus square Pluto will be with us all through the summer and into early autumn.

Now we're free to bring our heart's deepest truth into form, into our lives, through our Hands, through making, crafting, shaping, caressing, and holding. As much as new ideas and communications are needed and emerging, even more important now is for us to tangibly live differently, as we reach into wide open potentiality.

The radiance of the Sun shines freely, gives its light without effort, hesitation, or diminishment. We too can be fueled by the light, free to shinningly live our natural radiance, even when challenges arise.

Toward refining this new beginning, we are freed to traverse the vastness on a Skywalking journey... Mirror portal balancing between the years... toward a Skywalking Storm Attunement.
