

Moon 13 ~ Moon of Freedom

Night Warrior's Moon of Freedom

emerging from the Serpent Moon portal of this year toward becoming Moon Wizard Balancing Purposed

Night serpent-sprouts into a bridge between worlds, tasting the freedom of return to the year's open gateway into the vast dreaming deep. The white mirroring, full moon focused year past, now attunes to Moon's powerful, round darkness, enough to eclipse the sun in its summer strength, here atop a portaled mountain, the third eclipse in as many waves.

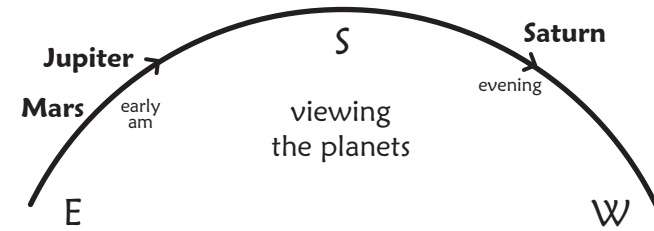

Night soars on eagle wings, carrying elixirs in its mouth, serpent bourne from within the cup-filled mountain, bound for the lips of Warriors, for whom even a few drops are enough to enliven embodiment, into more earthed-eloquently living the story.

Warrior dreams of dancing through the golden star gate, entering the realm of Moon magic's portaled phases, into the heartfelt, playful discovery that this year of 5 Moons Selfing a Serpent portal, finds us on the last day, arriving as Moon in Human Form.

Skywalking into Selfhood within the vastness beyond the years...
