

Moon 13 ~ Moon of Freedom

Monkey Seeds the Earth with Freedom

during our Skywalking Storm Attunement toward a year of Earth Seeding in Action

A new vision of ourselves as Free, storms through, sparking our Monkeyish curiosity, opening us into a transformative discovery, as we step through the year's cosmic gate into the vastness.

Potentiality abounds, becoming encoded and embodied through a profusion of Seed portals that open us to life's messages and plant the fertile seeds of freedom in our beings, which are watered deeply by a grand water trine of Jupiter, Saturn and Neptune, to sprout into earthed actions in the year to come.

Earth receives the seeds, and holds them. We who have been Skywalking this past year, find ourselves now, coming down to earth, readying to embark upon learning to ground, and to navigate by synchronicity, so that we might live what we believe. The last storm of this stormy year moves through and the sun comes out, then sets, as we the dreamers go deep into the night.
