

Moon 2 ~ Moon of Relatedness

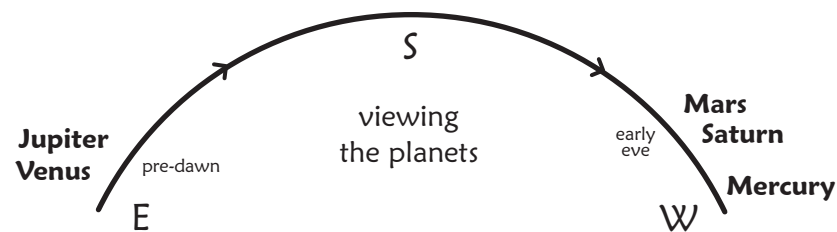

Hand reaches Sun through Skywalking Relatedness during our 9 Dragon Moon Realizations year

The Moon of Relatedness is ushered in by the waning crescent Moon with the beautiful pairing of Venus and Jupiter in the east, bestowing a benefic blessing in relatedness from a place of self-love. And, it's the Hand wave carrying us into Moon 2, so relatedness (not just with humans) best comes through touch, healing, and crafting. Soon, along comes the New Moon in Virgo on the day of a freeing Storm, as Mars and Saturn come together in Scorpio, reminding us to be strongly and deeply dedicated to the sacred.

Then, the Sun wave shines radiantly, challenging us to shine brightly in relatedness, no matter what arises. This is a time of freeing ourselves to be Humans in relatedness while being who we really are, beyond the wounds, living the gifts. Be willing to be the center around which others orbit. Bestow your light, naturally.

Next, we move into the White Realm of Refining, and under the light of the Pisces Full Moon delve into Skywalking relatedness with the beyond the human, through a mystical, direct experience of union with the universe. Life becomes a journey of relatedness. Not relationship, where we're living agreements or meeting needs, but relatedness as a wondrous journey. The Moon joins with Jupiter again, as Venus slips naked into the underworld.
