

Moon 7 ~ Moon of Attunement

Dogs through the Night become Warriors Attuning during our 9 Dragon Moon Realizations Year

Our Dog souls wag with happiness when we feel the love, and they growl when the vibe just isn't right. The revolution ripens in us as we ever more deeply attune to the freedom of filling ourselves with the actual experience of loving who and what we truly love. Be loyal to love. Be in love.

Though the Uranus square Pluto internal tensions are still very present, it's time for closing our eyes and coming home to our own selves, for slipping into the Night's dream and noticing the images and stories that arise from within. Relief from the insistent inner tensions will come through expressing our uniqueness. The New Moon in Aquarius floats by, whispering starry hopeful dreams and visions into Mercury's ear, who spins retrograde on its heels to re-attune to greater possibility. Venus fully emerges from the underworld, shining as the Evening Star. Find beauty in the night.

As Warriors, we attune to our strength to be able to live these lofty visions, to ripen into ourselves so that we're soon ready to emerge and take action in the world. The Full Moon with Jupiter at its brightest in self-loving Leo lights up our creativity and passion.
