

Moon 9 ~ Moon of Realization

Wind lifts Eagle to the Stars for Realization during our 9 Dragon Moon Realizations Year

The unseen breath of spirit exhales as Wind. Magic is Real(ized). Trust the knowing of what cannot be seen directly, yet rustles the leaves of our beings. Notice what's spoken or sung realizing and make adjustments before it becomes fully manifest as what is.

Eagle rides the breeze, soaring high above, treasuring its freedom, and with true vision seeing what's real. Mars touches off the 7th and final exact Uranus square of Pluto (which has been unfolding over the past 3 years!), and now we know and can see what this revolution has wrought. Even in this final squaring, radical shifts can bring it all together in new ways. Go for it! The Pisces New Moon totally eclipses the Sun, which hours later bursts forth renewed as the Spring Equinox Aries Sun. Mellowing mystical union brings surprising successes in creative, inventive group endeavors, along with freedom and independence in relationships.

Navigate what's real guided by the sparkling Stars in their courses. Living our natures as part of the elegant pattern's unfolding culminates in freedom. We are stardust, living as humans, and the ripening of living the magic comes from filling with starlit stories.
