

Moon 6 ~ Moon of Balancing

Starry Dragon Wizards Balancing

during our 10 Wizards Manifesting as Serpent Portals year

As Wizards, we attune to the Stars, to their guiding pattern dance that helps us organize our experience in meeting the world beyond ourselves. The Sun slows to a stand still, and we arrive at a Sun-Dragon Portal Gate, the end-beginning of a 260-day cycle begun in last April's Moon of Manifestation. What Is has brought us here.

The Dragon wave births a new Sun as it births us onto a new 260-day journey of meeting the world in a new way, from a new place in our beings, as if the world were ever-new.

Uranus and Pluto ring in "the new year" then inch closer to square in the coming weeks, reminding us not to become complacent, but to continue allowing the revolutions of the past few years to unfold.

The only Wizard wave in this Wizard year appears, dancing and balancing effortlessly while shape-shifting to meet the moment, inviting us to be Wizards Meeting the World as What Is. The mere mention of effortless sends Mercury retrograde in Capricorn (with Pluto, the Sun and New Moon gathering nearby) to seriously re-consider the meaning of work-life balance!

The Moon comes upon Venus and Saturn in Sagittarius and asks for the return of the archer's ring of power. Creative maturity turns and shoots an arrow toward the mountain peak and sets out to follow...
