

Moon 7 ~ Moon of Attunement

Wizard Handed Sun Attunement

during our 10 Wizards Manifesting as Serpent Portals year

Meeting the world as Wizards is a matter of attunement, of opening the central channel in our bodies and beings, and allowing cosmic energy to flow into and through us, of becoming “tuned in” to this song of the universe, sung as our lives.

Our Hands upstretch from the peak of the mountain to fill with aliveness, that we might come to know ourselves as makers, healers, and caressers. The Full Moon in Leo shines brightly, inviting us to be generously open-handed givers of gifts. Mercury in Capricorn becomes so inspired by the tangibility of it all that it goes Direct to join the party and make something of its thoughts.

All the visible planets gather together in the east to greet the dawning, including Saturn, who’s riding the heart of the Scorpion. Let’s join them, then rise like Suns, radiantly shining from our mountain tops, bestowing blessings, attuned to our gratefulness.

The Uranus Pluto square comes closest, with Mercury then Venus joining Pluto’s side. Tensions arise requiring expressive action toward tangible outcomes. The Moon visits Venus for the 6th Divestment; the girdling belt is unbuckled and dropped to the ground, that we might flow into action unrestrictedly...
