

Moon 7 ~ Moon of Attunement

Mirroring Monkeys Seed Attunement

during our Moon Storm Liberations year

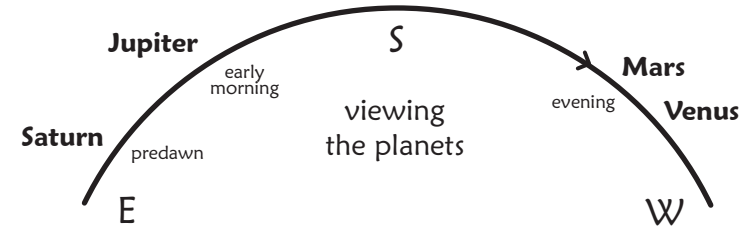

As we step atop the mountain of the year, the moonlit sky becomes a Mirror in this time of attunement. Raise your hands and invite in the ongoing perceptual shifts that come from seeing yourself reflected by the vastness of the cosmos. This delivers us to a crossover ~moment of transformation~ around how we meet challenges and relatedness that was birthed in Moon 2.

Now we attune to and through Monkey's play, discovering the path through allowing our curiosity to lead the way. Trickster may mess with us as needed to shake loose our problem-focus. By giving the energy a place to go, we're crafting our liberation.

A Seed sprouts as Mercury leaves its retrograde shadow and Mars moves into Aries on the New Moon in Aquarius. Energy abounds as 10 portals days open us into organic growthfulness. The Seed already knows what to do, and when, and how. Attune to that knowing and naturally unfold. This is being offered as our new way of living and relating.

Venus shines most brilliantly, with Mars nearby, as the waxing Moon confers Venus' crown, the 7th vestment. Attune to your crown!
