

Moon 13 ~ Moon of Freedom

Monkey Seeds Earth's Freedom

during our Year of Skywalker Seeding Integration toward a year of Earth's Moon Freedom

Monkey points at the Full Moon in Capricorn shining with Saturn at its brightest, exhorting us to find freedom in the serious play of crafting a life!

Throughout this year, New Moon by New Moon, we've been seeding ourselves with the 12 zodiac signs and their ways. Now, we encounter this culminating 13-day Seed wave, with its open portals that deliver us to the final New Moon of the Year, in Cancer (a partial eclipse). This is the Seeding of Freedom, to be found through nourishing & nurturing, home, family, & ancestral rooting.

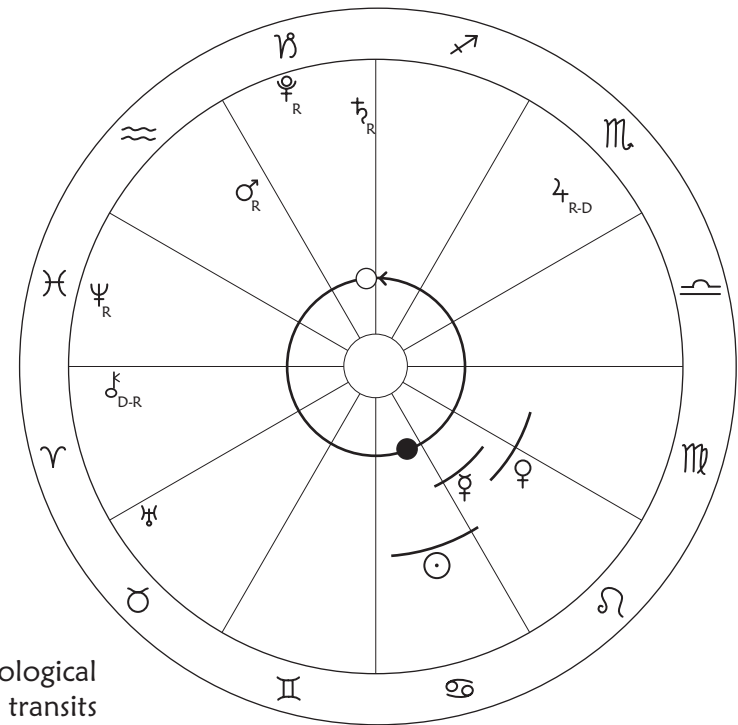

We bring this seeding all the way home to embracing our life here on Earth, freely navigating by synchronicity as we ground into surfing the shifting tectonic plates of the seeming solid, which will give purpose to the year to come. Moon visits Venus for the 5th vestment, bestowing a necklace, that we may find the eloquence to speak our experience of what's unfolding here in the earthly realm. Moon visits Jupiter & Zubenelgenubi, then Saturn once more, as the year comes to a close. What a grand adventure!

The Day Out of Time offers the possibility of dancing with the Stars here on Earth, opening a mystic portal of cosmic delights as we remember where we truly are. Mercury goes retrograde in Leo, turning back to exclaim once again over what's been so delightful.
