

Moon 4 ~ Moon of Form

Star shines Dragon into Wizard Form

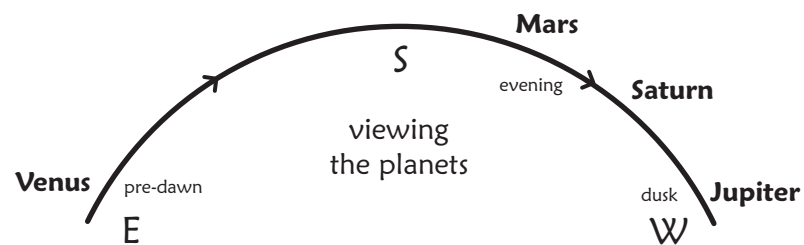

during our Year of Earth's Moon Freedom

Reading the beauty-filled book of sky, of magical storied Star constellations (each in their turn with planets dancing through), infuses us with living mythic form. Full Moon shines with Uranus in Taurus, on a 12 Storm day, a “pleasure through spontaneity and unusualness” activation to integrate into the birth to come.

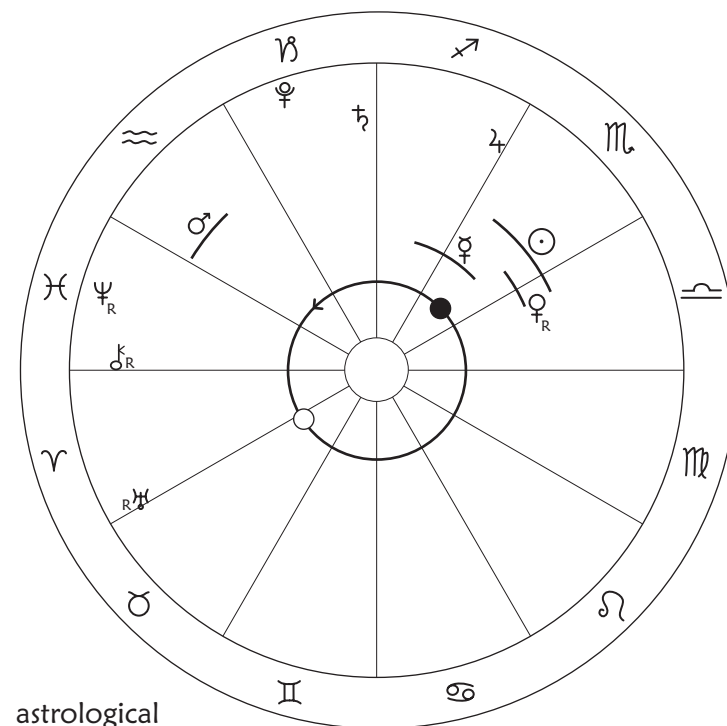

Dragon births a new form, emerging over the coming 260-days of waves. Venus between Earth and Sun in Scorpio inoculates this form with potent, purposeful love and beauty, boosting growth, strength, and immunity. Then, Venus retrogrades into Libra, and emerges as the Morning Star in the east, initiating a new cycle of graciousness (visible, not yet divesting, as Moon cruises by). Uranus retrogrades into Aries, pushing us to express our uniqueness in form.

Dark Moon in Scorpio sidles us into 1 Wizard, the conception day for next July's new year, when we'll embark upon a whole new 13-year Wizard journey. Riding Antares, the heart of the Scorpion, Jupiter moves into Sagittarius (it's home sign) for a year of letting our arrow fly, and seeking and following the journey it offers. This is a new kind of shapeshifting way and form of life. Barely visible, Moon escorts Jupiter slipping into the underworld.
