

Moon 8 ~ Moon of Action

Serpent Mirrors Monkey into Action during our Year of Earth's Moon Freedom

Now, we sensually Serpent-like undulate our new attunement down the pyramid mountain into the world, selves in motion living what we believe. We're open portals, through which soul and spirit flow into this world, as us. No retrograde planets turn us back, nor big transits push us on. It's simply time for taking authentic action from deep within our beings. Mars conjunct Uranus in Aries sparks embodied expression of our uniqueness, even as the wounded healer Chiron strides strongly into Aries once again, all lit by Venus shining with Saturn before dawn. Be strong beauty in tangible form.

Moon still shining in fullness, we gaze into many-faceted Mirror and see our new form reflected in our lives, leading to an iterative perceptual shift in our unfolding experience. Waning Moon visits Venus for the 4th divestment and we remove the protective mirrored heart amulet received last June; no longer needed.

With Mercury spinning on its heel turning retrograde, we step into the Monkey wave. Trickster is in play as we cross the threshold of the center of this cycle of waves, the moment of transformation into a new form in action, discovered through exploring and crafting. With Uranus moving back into Taurus, make sure the play is spontaneous and delicious. New Moon, Sun, and Neptune converge in Pisces, making for a spirit-, dream-, and illusion-soaked, discovery.
