

Moon 11 ~ Moon of Liberation

Hand lifts Sun to shine upon Skywalker Liberation

during our Year of Wizard Originating

Living our Wizardry in a Hands-on way liberates us to the next level through how we do what we do. Despite the Full Moon in Scorpio on a 13 Storm portal day kind of intensity, this is not the time for a holding on “fasten your seatbelt” approach, but a time to experience life in an open-handed way. No longer willing to tolerate that which is dissonant, we release what no longer serves as the beginnings of our new reality continue to unfold.

Liberated, we shine like the Sun, naturally, generously, and steadily. This simple radiance is enough. Be willing to show up and be seen at the next level.

There’s a directional change party during this Sun wave that’s ripening the reality of our new beginning. Our liberation can be amplified by going over familiar ground from a new perspective with some strong light shed on the pathway and surroundings.

Skywalker journeys this next level, refining our new beginning through exploring the multiple dimensions of our new reality that are present in each moment. Moon bows to the soul star atop the crown of Venus, who is now retrograde and quickly slips from the evening sky.
