

Moon 10 ~ Moon of Manifestation

Serpent Mirrors Monkey Manifesting

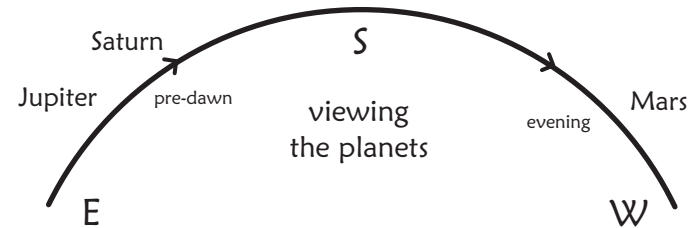

during this year when Wizard Meets Mirroring Storm

Serpent dances, undulating through an open portal, maturely manifesting as this moment, vitalizing us as body-portals being danced through into this world. Embodied transforming is enough.

The Dark Moon Aries Mirror reflects. Venus, Sun, then Mercury square Pluto, bring perceptual death and renewing actions around love, identity, and how we think and communicate, in relation to “what is.” The 2 Storm day in the Mirror wave brings us to the year’s Walking and Talking day, when the new year story comes back around, manifest as what is. Through relational challenge we’re maturing in our ways of meeting the world, seeing ourselves mirrored in all that unfolds. Energetic activations and enlivening experiences continue, with us more able to meet & live them.

Arriving at the transformational center of this round of waves in which we’re learning & becoming through meeting the world beyond ourselves, Venus, Mercury, & Uranus come together in Taurian revolutionary embodiment for this playfully unpredictable time of Monkeying around, curiously approaching, discovering, and crafting a life. Potency underlies this play, as beneath the Full Scorpio Moon, Pluto turns around slowly & plunges into the deep.
