

Moon 2 ~ Moon of Relatedness

Seeds Earthing with Dogs Relating

during this year when Wizard Meets Mirroring Storm

Seeds show their dicot cotyledons, sprouting paired embryonic leaves, as we growthfully transform in this year of learning through relational challenges, here in this Moon of relational challenge. Internal Mars square Saturn assertion-of-authority tensions resolve through shifting from fighting the opposition to expressing our sovereignty. Time for getting real in relatedness, with all of Life, amidst day upon day of the connective portal being wide open. We leaf thru the portals into the bathing light of Pisces' Full Moon, in direct relatedness with all-that-is.

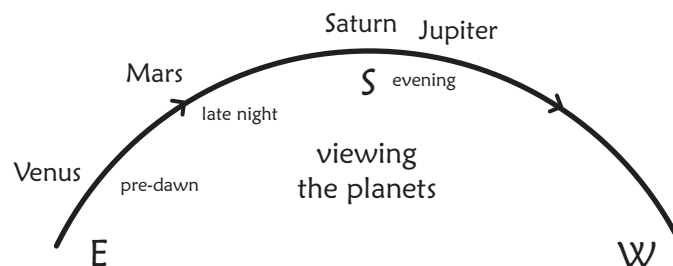

Earth rumbles and quakes, shaking things up with its necessary shifts as the sproutings displace crusty soil in their impulsive reach from rooting darkness into airy light. Here we learn to meet challenges by changing. We begin to re-ground and ripen into this Earthed realness.

Slowing to a stop, Mars in Aries goes retrograde, turning us to look back at and re-approach how we bring our creative will for life to relatedness. Are we reactive or assertive, fearfully brutal or standing strong in bringing ourselves to each encounter with embodied oomph?

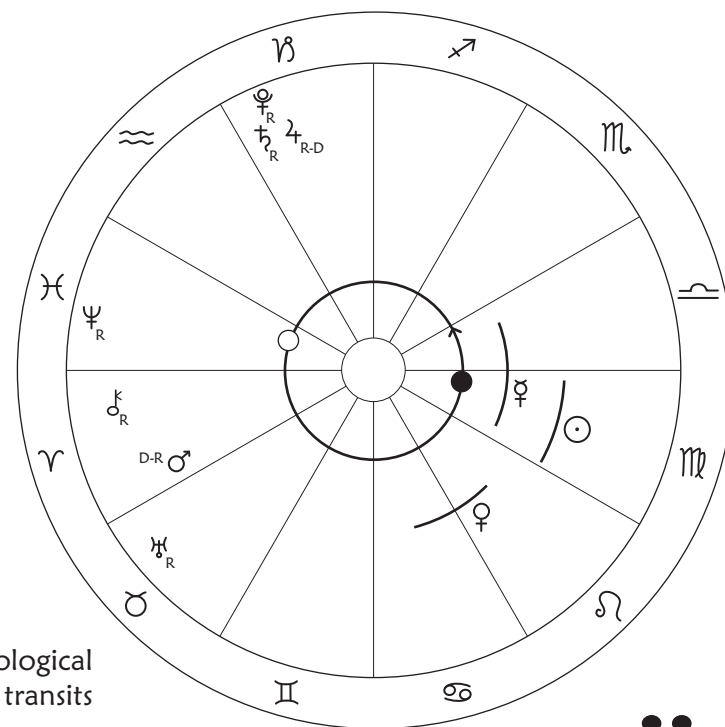

While Venus shines amidst the buzzing Beehive Cluster, Moon visits for the 3rd divestment and we relinquish our protective necklace of carefully chosen words and learn to speak sweet, naked love.

Dog loves this! Waggingly. We now learn to love like Dog, with loyalty and devotion in relatedness. New Moon in Virgo brings us, and our love, into service to the sacred dimensions of loving.
