

Moon 7 ~ Moon of Attunement

Monkey Seeds Earth Attunement

as Wizard Seeds Wind

Monkey tricks us into transforming what we're attuned to, into releasing the grip of our tight-fisted attention & focus on what we think we want. Liberating our curiosity, through playful discovery, opens and attunes us to what's emerging and unfolding in this moment. Mercury goes retrograde in Aquarius, revealing the newness that's right here when we shift our perspective!

After a brief rendezvous with Sun, Venus emerges as Morning Star in the east, rapidly rising out of the gloaming to initiate a new 584-day Venus in Capricorn cycle. This will be a time of serious maturing & gradualness in relation to love, work, and money.

From atop the mountain of this Wizard Seeds Wind year, we attune to Seeds of generous possibility. Learning to trust timing, we become potent portals for the organic unfolding of slow, tangible growth. Moon visits Venus w/ Mars for the first divestment, the relinquishing of the crown. Humility & dignity can be passionately embodying. New Moon in Aquarius with Saturn invites respect & knowing of what's ours to do in bringing the new reality.

Attuning to, and grounding within, the rumblings and shifting of Earth initiates our ripening. Relax into navigating by synchronicity.
