

Moon 11 ~ Moon of Liberation

Stormy Human Serpents into Liberation

as Wizard Moon Bridges Worlds

Storm rumbles and thunders, cracking us open through the lightening of sudden energetic release, immediately dissolving the dissonant diversions we've insistently grumbled about and clung to.

We're liberated to become more fully Human, to be present and in connection with other humans, and with the beyond human, to inhabit our place in this world as portals joining Earth and Sky. A subtly permeating Penumbral Lunar Eclipse of Full Moon in Scorpio shines upon our depth of feeling, lighting our way into the mystic.

During the humanness of this Sun in Taurus season, Mercury turns direct in Taurus, and (welcomed by Moon) Jupiter moves into Taurus and squares Pluto. This is a major following-on-from-Beltane gathering, a time for turning our deep hesitance around sensually experiencing life into a quietly gestured joining. We're already here in the garden, together, if we allow ourselves to be.

An undulatingly dancing Serpent wave is released, opening a persistent portal through which we're infused with cosmic energy flowing down and through our bodies into this world, via us truly being here. This initiatory transformation of our embodiment is embellished by New Moon in Taurus waxing to join with Venus, conferring a 5th vestment necklace of expressive adornment.
