

Moon 12 ~ Moon of Integration

Serpently Mirroring Monkey Seeds Integration

as Wizard Moon Bridges Worlds

Serpent rattles its tail, provoking embodied awakesness in this moment of Earthly freedom being transformationally integrated.

The image-sparkles of multi-dimensional Mirroring, surrounding and permeating us in every moment, transform our perceptual experience, endlessly bouncing reflections between what's been and what's to come, as we integrate what remains after our recent liberating release. Full Moon in Sagittarius shines its divinatory light upon this learning journey. Pluto retrogrades back into Capricorn to continue the regenerative process of pulling down deep old perceptual-experiencing-structures that have confined us.

A moment of transformation arrives, the midpoint in this Attuning round of waves. As Monkey, we now discover and attune to what's emergent as our new way of being, sometimes curiously & playfully, and as needed, tricked into it. Dark Moon in Gemini brings forth our capacity for nimble changeability. The positive potentiality phase of their 20-year journey arrives as Jupiter in Taurus sextiles Saturn in Pisces, initiating an experiential integration through which we embodiedly journey the work of newly storying our social selves and worlds. Summer Solstice sun sets on the longest day, giving way to Moon handing Venus (with Mars) the 6th vestment scepter.

A single Seed crystallizes generous possibility.
