

Moon 10 ~ Moon of Manifestation

Serpent Mirrors Monkey Manifesting as Seed Mirrors Attuningly

Serpent undulates emergent selfhood as vitality manifesting.

The 13-day Mirror wave (which led us into the Seed Mirrors Attuningly new year back in July's Moon 1), comes around again here in the Moon of Manifestation, bringing the 7 Seed in Mirror wave Walking & Talking day of this year. Time to walk and talk our new perceptual attunement, growthfully. Mars into Aries adds oomph. New Moon in Aries conjunct Chiron inspires felt-sense living of our gifts through direct transmissions that heal and teach.

We've reached the very center of the 260-day Tzol'kin round of Selfhood, just as waxing Crescent Moon visits Venus for the 2nd Evening Star vestment — donning the girdling jingle belt. Move from 2nd chakra flowingness, playfully, as the What Is of selfhood. (not from an identity or a construct, but) ever-transforming selfing.

Monkey embodies curiosity and discovery in the sometimes playful, and sometimes trickster-ish, transformational experiences of selfhood. Sun into Taurus invites experiencing our selves through the pleasures of embodiment. Venus leads Uranus into Gemini to stay, loving local learning conversations with Universe abound!

Moon in Libra makes a momentary Grand Air Trine with Pluto and Venus. Breathe it in. Moon 10 of What Is ends with the end of the Monkey wave, inviting ongoing curiously selfing as simply What Is. Full Moon in Scorpio shines, filling us with potency & depth.
