

Moon 12 ~ Moon of Integration

Dog Night Warrior Integrating as Seed Mirrors Attuningly

Dog integrates through exuberantly loving selfhood. Howling beneath Full Moon in Sagittarius trine Saturn inspires sustained emergence. The benefics Venus and Jupiter in Cancer shine together beautifully as Evening Stars. Belongingness integrates us into Life with heartfelt nurturing nourishment and inclusive expressions of love, as Mercury engages the Field.

Entering the Night, deep dreaming, storied at-homeness abounds. Belongingly being at home in the Universe, familial and ancestored, we welcome and are welcomed. Crescent Moon visits Evening Star Venus (with Jupiter), bestowing a strengthening and encouraging 4th vestment heart amulet. Venus spreads true love through the Field. Partying through the night, New Moon in Gemini celebrates life.

Chiron moves into Taurus, in this first foray, offering a healing way of journeying through shifting from orienting by our wounds around embodiment and havingness, to living and selfing in ways that heal and teach through direct transmission by valuing and embodying beauty, pleasure, and love.

Sun moves into Cancer ~ Summer Solstice sextile Chiron, the longest day of the year, to integrate delicious belongingness as the year story. Seeing where we've been and what's been released, with an eye toward what's to come, we integrate what remains toward a new complex whole.

Warrior crystallizes, integral selfhood ripening thru embodied presence.
