

Moon 6 ~ Moon of Balancing

Dragon With Wizard Hands Balancing as Seed Mirrors Attuningly

Here be Dragon(s), continuing to birth new ways of experiencing and expressing Selfhood, within and as, the Field of Aliveness, now, balancingly meeting the world beyond the self, in and as continual emergentness. New Moon in Sagittarius square Neptune has us journeying in Universe, meaningfully storying. Belongingness in action transmits from Jupiter square Chiron living of our gifts (rather than orienting by the old wounds of self-identification).

Sun moves into Capricorn at Winter Solstice, marking the southernmost cornerposts of the House of Sun and Moon we live within here on Earth. Aligning with the real real world story, we experience really being at home on Earth, in Universe.

In this deepening into winter time, along comes Wizard, dancing shapeshifting selfingness, balancingly, refining emergent selfhood through meeting all beyond self, in an honoring and mature way. By the Full Moon in Cancer light of belonging, shining opposite Venus and Mars with Sun, we can meet and be met with real respect.

Hand reaches and touches, caressingly, selfhood transforming though crafting and making with gradualness and care. In the underworld, Venus, Mars, and Sun tryst in Capricorn, opposite Jupiter in Cancer, balancingly dancing deeply internal integrity in showing up amidst expansive belonging.
