

Moon 3 ~ Moon of Motion

Wizard Hands spin Sun Motion

as Moon Rides Wind

Wizard moves, effortlessly, in dynamic relatedness with This Moment, and all of Life.

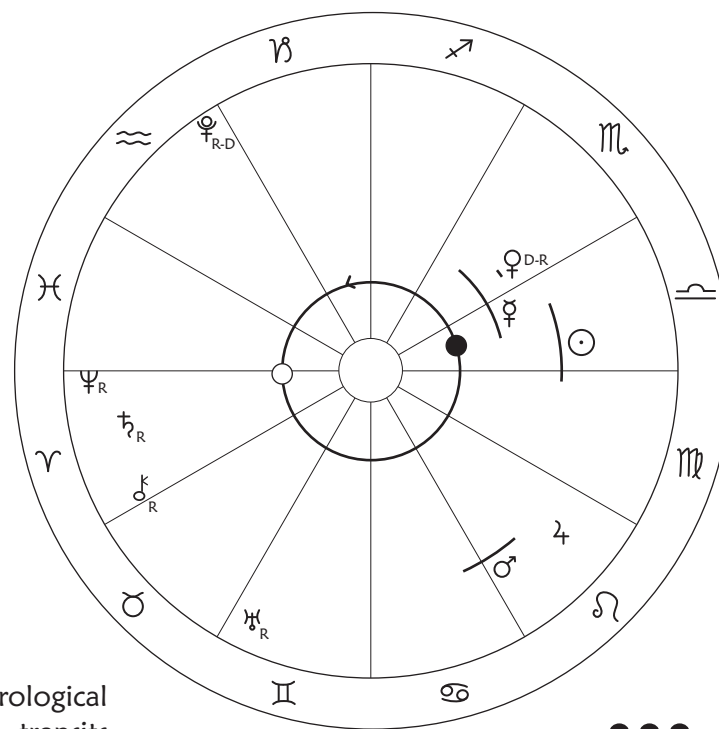

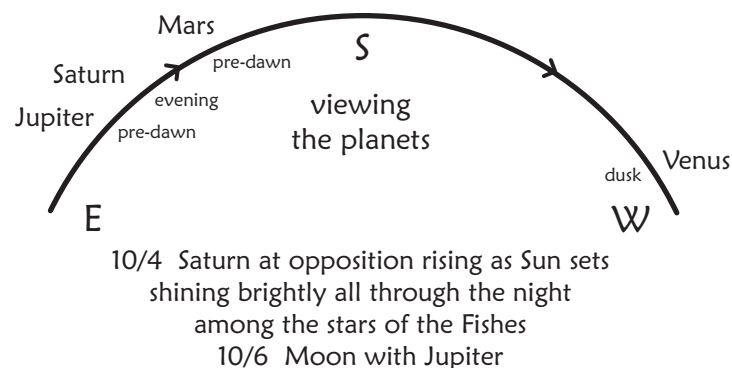

Hand touches and shapes, intimately exploring, true relatedness in motion. This brings a time for actively Crafting a Life, as our way of being and doing.

Sun into Libra ~ Autumn Equinox arriving, a time for gathering together along the riversides, singing back and forth across the waters as we weave a vessel carrying ourselves and the seasonal changes homeward, inward, toward the Yin of the year.

Full Moon in Aries exactly conjunct Neptune, with Saturn shining nearby, brings a major moony activation of our Living Relationally, in, and with, the emergent dream-story dance of the new Field. Venus turns Retrograde in Scorpio, then slips quickly from shining as Evening Star in the western sky, fully-vested and adorned, walking a “between worlds” metamorphic transformation, toward seeding a new cycle.

Sun, with its more gently-angled autumn light, ripens this new Living Relationally beginning, weaving us within the “third thinginess” of Sun, Moon, & Earth, tipping the scales of the New Moon in Libra balancing dance. Moon 3 ends with the end of the Sun wave, completing this Living Relationally new beginning.
